

Building hope and confidence: Prayers and Bible verses

Prayers

Gracious God, giver of hope which sustains our lives we thank you.

Loving Father, we hope in your word:
we trust in your plans for a future where we will thrive in showing love to those we seek to serve.

Saviour Christ, we hope in your word:
we trust in your plans for a future where we will bear eternal fruit as we follow your commands.

Holy Spirit, we hope in your word:
we trust in your plans for a future where we will be filled with power and guided in every truth.

Thanks be to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, for our sure and steadfast hope. Amen

Living God, we thank you that we can put our hands in yours, and walk where you will lead us, confident that, though all else may fail, you will not, though heaven and earth pass away, your words will endure forever.

So we come in faith, with joyful hearts and in glad thanksgiving, to offer our worship, and to dedicate our lives once more to your service.

You have given us hope, and hope does not disappoint us.

Receive our praise, in the name of Christ. Amen

To have hope is to believe that history continues open to the dream of God and to human creativity.

To have hope is to continue affirming that it is possible to dream a different world, without hunger, without injustice, without incrimination.

To have hope is to be a courier of God and courier of men and women of good will, tearing down walls, destroying borders, building bridges.

To have hope is to believe in the revolutionary potential of faith, is to leave the door open so that the Spirit can enter and make all things new.

To have hope is to begin again as many times as necessary.

To have hope is to believe that hope is not the last thing that dies.

To have hope is to believe that hope cannot die that hope no longer dies.

To have hope is to live.

Whatever today may hold, whatever tomorrow might bring,
the future is secure, for Christ is with us, the same yesterday, today and forever.
Live each moment with him in quiet confidence and joyful celebration, for he is ours and we are his for all eternity. Amen

We are born in hope,
Raised in hope,
Nurtured in hope,
Loved in hope,
Comforted in hope,
Suffer in hope,
Endure in hope,
Overcome in hope.

Hope in the One who has endured all things that we might know freedom, Hope in the One who has given us his Spirit that we might have power,

Hope in the One who has loved us beyond death that we might have life, Hope in the One who prepares a place for us that we might share eternity with him.

For hope that endures, we thank you Lord.

In our anxiety, fear and uncertainty, when hearts are heavy with the load we bear, and there is no one to turn toward but you; yours is the peace that calms, the peace that comforts, the peace that gives us strength to carry on.

Yours is the voice we long to hear, the persistent whisper in our ear,
'Be still, and know that I am God'.
Yours is the presence in the dark that banishes our fears.
Yours is the hand that guides, the footprints in which I walk.

In our anxiety,
fear and uncertainty, in confidence we turn to you.

Our hope and confidence is in you, our loving Father;
you have opened the door of heaven through your plan of salvation.

Our hope and confidence is in you, our saviour, Jesus Christ; you have paved the way for us to know joyous relationship with God.

Our hope and confidence is in you, our counsellor, Holy Spirit; you have shined a light for us to see the love of the Father and Son.

Thanks be to God, for our sure and steadfast confidence and the hope in which we glory. Amen

Lord, listen to your people.
There are many crying out for justice.
Their wait goes on and hope is fading:

Lord hear their prayers,
build their hope,
renew their confidence in you.

Lord, look upon your people.
There are many seeking for answers.
Their search goes on and hope is fading:

Lord hear their prayers,
build their hope,
renew their confidence in you.

Lord, bring comfort to your people.
There are many longing for peace.
But conflict remains and hope is fading:

Lord hear their prayers,
build their hope,
renew their confidence in you. Amen
